With 80,000 photographs in its collection (800 of which are permanently on show), Charleroi's Museum of Photography is considered the most important of its kind in Europe.

More than just a museum

Over 13,000 titles and 4,000 files dedicated to photography are accessible to the public in the museum's library.

The museum shop features the publications, photography works, gadgets and ideas for gifts and decoration.

Hungry? The café offers a peaceful setting and a wide range of treats.

Around the museum

Go for a stroll in the museum's park: 85 ha featuring protected trees. Perfect to conclude your visit and reflect on the gems you have just seen!
