Located on the highest site of the country, between the Fagnes plain and forest crossed by mountain streams, the Maison du Parc-Botrange welcome visitors in their quest to reconnect with outdoors activities and discover the largest Nature reserve in Belgium.

The museum

Original, playful, interactive, surprising: the permanent exhibition, Fania, will reveal the haute Fagnes' many secrets. Designed with children in mind, the galleries immerse you in a soothing, enchanting atmosphere. Listen up! Here you get to hear morning birds, nocturnal noises.... Further on, you can climb in a squirrel's nest and explore a fox's burrow.

The brewery and boutique

Enjoy regional recipes. locally brewed beer, freshly pressed fruit juice... or do a little shopping! The boutique features nature books, terroir products, postcards, hiking maps and all kind of gift ideas...

The tractor-drawn carriage

A fantastic way to discover the region! The ride covers 18 km in 2 hours and includes information on the local fauna and flora.

Also at the Maison du Parc-Botrange

- Guided walks
- Medicinal plants garden
- Didactic path (accessible to PRMs)
- Possibility to rent e-bikes
- Possibility to rent cross-country skiing equipment in season

Visitors with specific needs

The Botrange nature centre is one of the many sites certified by Access-i (meaning with facilities or/activities adapted to travellers with specific needs). Please note only the museum (not the gardens) is certified. You will find more details on the website to plan your visit.
