Nimy was once famous for its exquisite china skills. A page of history you can explore fully in the town's museum, home to a fascinating collection of potteries as well as other crafts mastered in the region.

Faïence, ceramic and porcelain

The museum galleries feature masterpieces from the 18th, 19th and 20th century: all made in local china factories, Mons, Borinage and a few other internationally known names.

Visitors can also admire ceramics manufactured in Hauts-de-France and clay pipes designed in Nimy, Maisières, ...

There's more

The Nimy Museum also has:

- a room presenting didactic material on china crafts
- another dedicated to WWI
- objects retracing the region's history
