Charleroi Tourisme Gina Santin

Located between Mons and Namur, the Château de Trazegnies, dating back to the XIth century, is a precious example of Belgian feudal architecture.

Discover a lively castle, regularly organising events and cultural activities such as themed activities, concerts, a traditional Christmas marker, a book and paper market, guided tours and educational workshops.

The Château de Trazegnies' terroir boutique sells a range of beers featuring the castle on their label, wines, liquors, apple and pear juice, local honey.

During the high season (May to September), make sure to visit the recently renovated rooms as well as the Roman and Gothic caves of the castle.
