Bourgeoise and private in the eighteenth century, the mansion Dufays is named after its former owners, and is now a boutique hotel for those looking for charm and conviviality.

The Boutique Hotel Dufays combines luxury and tradition in the charming setting of yesteryear home with a modern hotel service. It offers a compact and bijou place that has all you could wish for in terms of originality and taste. It feels historical and intimate in all its old school grandeur and you'll enjoy all the little personal touches including the nurtured and well kept gardens, the attention to detail at meal times and the warmth of the local region that both business and leisure guests will experience are a must for those seeking something more personal in their hotel experience.
