The motto on the Manoir de Lébioles crest says "Plus Valet Quam Lucet" (There is more to see than meets the eye). How so very true: this first class hotel in the province of Liège offers its guests an extraordinary sense of luxury, an intimate atmosphere and first class service.

The history

Built between 1905 and 1910, Manoir de Lébioles was once a family home, used as a backdrop for glamorous events such as concerts, gala balls and plays by the National Theatre of Belgium. Through much of the 20th century until the 1980s, it was converted into a hotel.

Relax at the Manoir de Lébioles

Manoir de Lébioles - considered one of the most beautiful buildings of architectural note in the region - underwent an extensive renovation project in 2006, returning "the small Versailles of the Ardennes" to its former glory, while introducing state-of-the-art luxury and modern comfort.

The hotel meets the guests' desires.

- 13 spacious, luxurious suites, each with a particularity: chimney, view on the Ardenne or the castle's interior yard, large bathroom bathed in light...
- 3 Relais rooms with a Queen size bed, bathroom, minibar, television, internet and safe
- A gastronomic restaurant: Chef Olivier Tucki creates inspired, authentic dishes sure to delight all gourmets.

The spa

This update, coupled with its location nestling majestically amid the woods of the Ardennes close to the historic town of Spa, together with its stunning wellbeing space, make the hotel a natural choice for those seeking rest and relaxation.

Weddings, events and corporate

The hotel's prestigious setting is perfect for celebrations and seminars.
