A charming property overlooking the fields, which is located a few kilometres from Dinant and the Valley of the Lesse. The house is recognized and renowned for the quality of its dining and is a true destination for gastronomes eager for tranquility, well-being and a personalized service. Large, bright and refined rooms with private terrace overlooking the woods and fields make this a really special place to stay.

There is also a conference room (capacity of the largest room):
min. 20 people - max. 40 people
