Love off-the-beaten-path experiences? This one, in Wallonia, is sure to seduce foodies: discover the Ardenne on board a carriage on which a gourmet table has been set... The Chariot à fondue de Porcheresse is the first horse-drawn restaurant in Belgium!

The journey will take you through the back country of the Ardenne, the countryside near Porcheresse, Graides, Gembes, Our, the Grinchi pass, Daverdisse... all at the horses' pace. Up to 12 persons can sit at this mobile table, a lovely memory to share with friends or family. The ride takes 2 to 3 hours.

A carriage introducing you to the Belgian terroir

You read that right: a Chariot à fondue, meaning melted cheese... But there is space for all kind of terroir products too.

Ardenne Trait Gourmande will put together quite a gourmet brunch, base on local delicacies: cured meat, meat fondue, chocolate fondue and other desserts. During the meal, the driver will entertain guests with countless anecdotes on the region and its beautiful landscape.

The Chariot à fondue is available all year.

It is accessible to persons with reduced mobility and also has a heating system. If the temperature gets to chilly it can be covered.

Perfect throughout the seasons.

A safe way to discover the region

The roads and path chosen for this itinerary are perfectly safe as is the table setting, built specially for the fondue kit. Neither the plates nor the glass are at risk of falling during the ride.

Visitors with specific needs
