La Fagne de la Poleur is a high plateau composed of moors and bogs in the Ardenne. A didactic path will tell you more about this area, typical of East Belgium.

La Fagne de la Poleur stretches over 54 hectares and is situated at an altitude of 660 m.

The Poleur stream starts here.

The region, the result of centuries of human activity, offers a wide range of landscapes:

- Dry moors
- High bogs
- Low bogs
- Streams

The didactic path

Panels along the way reveal information about the evolution and balance of the surrounding ecosystems.

Look out for blueberries, cranberries, sphaigne and orchids.
