The Jandrain-Jandrenouille brewery, set in a typical farm of the Walloon Brabant province, focuses not only on a short circuit (local or Belgian malts, water from the village) but also on green energy.

Created in 2017, this brewery found its home in a typical farm of the region.

Their signature beer is IV Saison. IV refers to the 4 ingredients necessary for a beer, Saison to the fact that all beers brewed locally used to be called that way. The brewery also makes a V Cense, an amber beer at 7% infused with spice.
