The Tourist Office of Fosse-la-Ville, at the very heart of the city, would be delighted to help you plan your stay in the region. The team will happily tell you about the local traditions (the Napelonian marches, for example), range if events taking place and terroir products.

Fosse-la-Ville, located between Charleroi and Namur, used to be part of the principality of Liège. The town, nestled in a hilly landscape is particularly peaceful and pleasant. It comes to life for its famous military marches and celebrations of Saint Feuillen, its patron.

Open Fridays to Sundays, from 10 am to 4 pm.

The information contained herein is provided as a guide only.

We recommend that you check with the local supplier before you leave.
