Le Prieuré Saint-Géry Hotel is a charming hotel featuring a Michelin starred restaurant - perfect for a dream weekend in the Chimay region.

The hotel is located in the Walloon region of Botte du Hainaut, south of Charleroi. It reflects beautifully the spirit of Michelin starred chef Vincent Gardinal and the quality of his dishes.

Le Prieuré Saint-Géry Hotel

This former priory, fully renovated, features 4 rooms and 2 apartments, each offering a different atmosphere.

The decor, designed by Jean Nicolas, is in line with the charm of this residence which grew overtime, as show the rooms of various sizes and configurations. Still, they retain a wonderful timeless, cosy quality and a cocoon feeling. Textile matters here - the bed linen are soft to the touch, the pillow as comfortable as can be.

Le Prieuré Saint-Géry restaurant

Chef Vincent Gardinal is known for its high-quality, refined and creative cuisine and the restaurant for its intimate atmosphere. After a good night's rest, it's a delight to have breakfast on the pleasant terrace, open for lunch and dinner too.

Please note the restaurant is closed Mondays and Tuesdays, except for public holidays.

Capacity: 14 persons, 6 rooms
