The Paysage de la Lorraine gaumaise interpretative centre offers the chance to discover its fascinating region, rich in cultural heritage.

Overlooking the Semois valley, between the Ardenne and Lorraine, this area has something for everyone: geology, forests, agriculture, architecture... There are 4 buildings to explore on site to better understand its geography and relief.

Family fun

The interpretative centre organises guided tours, walks, gourmet hikes and events for children and adults (in French and Dutch) throughout the year. See the agenda for more information.

A multimedia space

Djean de Mâdy invites you to follow him on the many paths of the Gaume region and learn more about the locals and the landscapes.

A documentation centre and educational space

Children and adults can leaf through books presenting the landscapes, geology, forest, agriculture and architecture of the region.

Temporary exhibitions

The centre organises exhibitions celebrating local artists.
