The Villa 1900 is much more than a museum: this stunning building and its exquisite interior seems straight of La Belle Epoque. Suspended in time, it is a space where visitors can learn, meet artists, chat about culture, drink a glass of wine or simply share a delightful time.

An architecture and an enchanting atmosphere

The architecture mixes Mosan, Art Nouveau and Art Deco style.

The ground floor rooms are open to the public and free to visit.

There are many atmospheres to butterfly to: a restaurant with the staff dressed in period costume, serving homemade dishes inspired by seasonal ingredients, a tea room with vintage style china, an organic boutique featuring local products, another selling artisan creations, workshops...
