This international cycling race takes on the most selective, spectacular and coveted road in Belgium.

The Flèche Ardennaise is the main event of the season for Belgian cyclists at the top of their game. Professional continental teams, national teams, regional teams and cycling clubs are welcome to join.

This race, which takes place in the province of Liège, is organised by the Ardenne Flèche society. The Flèche ardennaise is featured on Top Compétition, a calendar listing all Belgian races put together by the Belgian Royal Cycling League every year.

It gives a ranking of Belgian cyclists under 27 of age and of all Belgian teams taking part.

Practical information

- The race starts and ends in Herve

- It stretches to the South all the way to Trois-Ponts
- Departure at 12:30 pm
- Arrival around 5 pm.

Come and cheer the best of Belgian cyclists joining this iconic race!
