Mont-Saint-Aubert celebrates Saint Aubert, protector of bakers, with a special fair dedicated to bread.

The festivities start from breakfast, with a delicious boucas (a pebble-shaped bread) served with Maroilles cheese.

The day then unrolls activities for all: walks and bike rides, touristic train, regional producers presenting their creations, tasting of Boucas du Mont wines, petting farm, mass in the local dialect, concerts and to finish on a high, fireworks!

The profits of these festivities, organised by Les Leongs Tchu, will support a good cause.
