Vaux-sous-Chèvremont celebrates every second Saturday of September a foodie fair dedicated to fricassées.

It all started with a miraculous Virgin statue, bringing crowds in. Guinguettes and restaurants started serving fricassée à la liégeoise (made with lard, sausage and eggs, served with bread) to the hungry pilgrims.

The dish remains on the menus but has its own special day each year with tastings and animations for children and adults.
