The province of Namur invites you its picnic walks this summer: a wonderful opportunity to enjoy the beautiful landscapes the region has to offer, learn about its history and savour terroir products.

6 off the beaten path events

These picnic walks will take you all around the province of Namur, starting this July. There are 4 dates to choose from, each featuring an exquisite hike through the countryside and a delicious meal, sitting in the grass. The next event will take place in 2021.

All included

- Access to touristic sites and animations
- Picnic hamper with local specialities
- Vegetarian and Kids options available

A fantastic opportunity to combines nature and terroir.
