Enjoy cheese and pancakes, try a homemade infusion, liqueur, Trappist beer or other succulent brew made in the Namur region.

This garden features a wide range of wild and medicinal plants, with flowers, shrubs, trees blending in the landscape beautifully.

A warm and friendly tasting room

In the tasting room, visitors can try exclusive liqueurs, homemade goat's cheese on fresh bread, soups and pancakes.

A wild herb gardens and shop

The boutique sells liqueurs, cheese, infusions, teas and shampoos - all made on site, often by the owners. Don't forget to have a stroll through the wild herb gardens (do book in advance), which can be on your own or with a guide.

Perfect to catch up with friends over a drink or learn more about nature and foraging.
