L'Abbé Canne, set in a former chapel, will delight couples looking for an off-the-beaten-path stay. This countryside gîte in Ruelle (Gaume region) has been awarded 3 épis.

The building was built in local golden-yellow stone, an architectural style typical of Gaume. It was renovated with care using environment-friendly material. Its enchanting atmosphere makes it perfect for romantic getaways.

L'Abbé Canne is divided into 2 floors. The ground floor features a living room, a lounge and an open kitchen. The first floor has a double room, a separate bathroom (shower and toilets).

Activities around the gîte

The Gaume is one of the most beautiful regions in Belgium. Touristic attractions, gourmet discoveries, green spaces: it has it all. They are many walking and cycling trails leaving from the gîte. RAVels and hikes await!

Also within easy reach is the Orval Abbey, where you can try the famous Trappist beer, and Bouillon and its castle.
