The Malmondarium, a former Benedictine monastery, is a space dedicated to memory, art, history and culture in the Cantons de l'Est region.

Visitors are sure to enjoy the beauty of the building recently renovated as well as the route through the museum, playful and interactive.

On two levels, the 3,000 m<sup>2</sup> immerses you in 14 centuries of the region's history. Explore the information and documentation centre, the "Mon'Art" gallery, the cloister and its courtyard, the leather workshop, the carnival workshop, the paper workshop (demonstration on request), the the Treasure of the cathedral and the historium retracing 14 centuries of history.

Prestigious exhibitions are regularly organised as well as animations for groups and school. There is something for everyone!
