This festive event, which takes place every year on the third Sunday of July, features 120 artists and artisans coming from all over Belgium and France.

Along the street of the village, visitors can meet sculptors, blacksmiths, potters, lace and basket makers.

A unique party in the South of Gaume

Art and music also are on the program with musical and folkloric groups adding to the atmosphere. There will be a food village, a vintage tractor exhibition, concerts and animations.

Entry is free - come and join the fun!
