Immerse yourself in the eventful history of the Mosan valley thanks to the Maison du Patrimoine Médiéval Mosan (MPMM) and discover what life was like in the region during the Middle Ages.

The Maison du Patrimoine Médiéval Mosan (MPMM), dedicated to the Meuse Valley, invites you to discover: the river, the city and the castle, life in the Middle Ages as well as religious foundations and funeral rites in that era. Visitors can discover this incredible heritage through models, multimedia terminals, illustrations and artefacts from archaeological excavations. The site, which really brings history alive, also organises temporary exhibitions.

Families

How about playing detective at the MPMM? Someone has been slithering in the museum at night lately. It is said a little light is seen travelling from one room to another... and this despite the security system being on. Can you help? Pick up a leaflet (available in French and Dutch, 3.60 Euros) and track this mysterious character.

Practical details

- The visit lasts about 2 hours
- Disabled access: ground floor and temporary exhibition

The Meuse Valley is as beautiful as it is historical, discover its history and its secrets at the Medieval Heritage House Mosan.
