The Meuse architecture

The Bola river crosses the village, making it even more picturesque still. Take a stroll, have a look at the 17th and 18th-century houses blending brick, lime and sandstone. Stop by:

- the Saint Roch church (18th century)
- the Château de Soiron (18th century, Louis XV style)
- the Château de Sclassin (16th century)

Add to this charming touches: crosses, chapels, a washhouse, a brewery... You will encounter an unexpected building with 160 holes, witness of an activity now disappeared: drying thistles.

Festivities in Soiron

The village hosts Soiron sur Scène every year in August. This street arts festival brings even more magic, laughs and happiness to this charming location.

Gourmet delights

- Du Coq à l'Âne: a little deli filled with regional treats... Special beers, local cheese, smoked sausages, honey, jams, apple juice and more. To be enjoyed on site or taken back home.
- Le Vieux Soiron: a friendly atmosphere, French and Belgian dishes – perfect!
