This 3-star hotel, situated in the town centre, by the Wellington Museum, offers 100 rooms. The staff, very friendly, promises a welcome fit for an emperor.

In the heart of the Walloon Brabant province, a mere 20 km from Brussels, within easy reach of the Waterloo battlefield, the Ibis Brussels Waterloo hotel features 100 comfortable rooms, 20 being family-size. All come with air conditioning, wooden floor, TV, a large double bed or twin beds with a duvet and free WIFI.

With its bar and terrace open 24/7, its free private parking and its high level of service, this is the perfect place to spend your next stay in South Belgium.

Discovering the region

In 1815, history redefined Europe at Waterloo. Start at the Wellington Museum, an 8 minutes' walk from the hotel. A little further is the famous battlefield, the Lion's Mound and the museums retracing every step of the event. Alternatively, visit the Villers-la-Ville abbey, founded by the Cistercian Order - activities and events are organised all year round - or the Folon Foundation and its museum, by the Solvay Park.

Waterloo also boasts a flourishing economy - many companies have built their offices nearby.
