Le Mans comes to Belgium! The FIA World Endurance Championship brings the cars that race in the Le Mans 24 Hours to the historic spa Francorchamps circuit for this six-hour endurance race. This race has always taken precedence because it is the last race before Le Mans in the calendar.

The undulating circuit at Spa is a challenge for drivers but it also opens all of the circuit up for great spectating. A footpath around the track enables all spectators to wander around the whole circuit, never straying more than a few metres from the track.
