Mons International Film Festival is one of the most iconic cinema events of the year in Belgium. The central theme? Love, all kind of loves with audacious takes on the subject.

The heart of the festival

This event aims at offering a space where all generations and artistic universes come together. This week-long festival make the city of Mons more vibrant still with short and feature-length movies from all all over the world.

A fascinating range of guests and activities

There is something for every movie lovers at this festival:

- meeting with cinema celebrities

- Never seen before movies
- Special themes
- Belgian movies
- Insights on the history of cinema
- Evenings and events

This new edition will take place at Imagix Mons, at the Abel Dubois Auditorium, at the Théâtre royal de Mons and at the Congrès hôtel Van der Valk.
