Located in the Eastern Cantons, the Brasserie de Bellevaux will introduce you to the delights of its artisanal Ardenne brews.

Set in a former farm, this family microbrewery will explain the various steps in the making of these high fermentation craft beers: lager, dark, white and the Malmedy Triple. All can be tasted in the tavern on site.

The beers and its terroir products

The Brasserie Bellevaux finds inspiration in the surrounding Eastern Cantons, a land of traditions. During the visit, you will get a chance to see the stunning red copper tanks used to brew the Bellevaux.

You can also try a selection of regional products on site: cheese made with raw milk, charcuterie from Malmedy, smoked trout from Ondeval... A beer can be recommended to match every dish to perfection.
