This rural museum retraces a carpenter's life during the last century, presenting the tools he would have used. Also featured are postcards of the town of Ploegsteert (a town of the entity of Comines-Warneton, one of the main battling sites of the first world war) before and after the war declaration as well as after 1918. There are more than 2,000 objects to see.

Open by appointment only as well as during festivities and/or local activities. The Comines-Warneton Tourist Office can give you more information. Tel.: +32 (0)56/55 56 00.
