Enjoy a fantastic, poetic and artistic Sunday in the village of Clermont-sur-Berwinne. A fantastic summer event.

Over 100 artists and artisans will settle in the gardens, yards and alleyways of this adorable village, listed as one of the most beautiful ones in Wallonia.

The program

Take a stroll through the village to meet with amazing artists, some already established, others less known but with incredible skills.

There are so many disciplines to learn about: sculptures (made of welded metal, wood, earth, papier-mache, recycled objects), ceramics, lamps, baskets, stained windows, paintings, illustrations, jewels (made of paper, leather, glass, Fimo paste, precious metals, recycled metal) and stunning creations made of fabric (bags, baby clothes, toys...). Artists and artisans will present their collections, with some demonstrating their skills until 7 pm.

A passion shared

The people from Clermont will welcome you warmly to their gardens and home, delighted to share their passion. Expect musical entertainment too.
