70 private gardens will exceptionally open their door to the public for the occasion. The next event will take place in 2021.

The stunning site of the Château d'Englebermont in Neupré will, in parallel, gather 50 passionate exhibitors, delighted to share gardening tips with the public.

Over 3,000 visitors joined the event last year: some come for every edition, others simply were curious about these exceptional site or looking for creative ideas for their own little paradise.

Gardening themed animations will be organised through the day.
