The Furfooz park, in the province of Namur, invites you to discover its archaeological, geological and natural heritage. This family-friendly stroll offers lovely views on the Lesse river.

Practical information

Start: rue du Camp romain, 79 (Furfooz)

Duration: 2 h

Distance: 4 km

Level: Average

Signs: Yellow arrow

Along the way

Take the time to admire the flora and fauna, typical of the Lesse valley. Picture perfect!

Furfooz, a magnificent site

The massif has been occupied from the Palaeolithic to the Middle Ages. You will notice traces of the different eras: reconstructed Roman bath, a fortified medieval plateau... and, as you go through the valley, caves where men used to live thousands of years ago.
