Halfway between Brussels and Liège, this estate is home to an 18th century Neoclassical castle and a stunning park.

While the castle is only open to business tourism, its green setting welcomes all visitors wishing to reconnect with nature.

Take a stroll

A path follows the estate's 3 fishing ponds. Expect lovely landscapes along the way, ducks, geese and swans moving gracefully by your side. A smaller path will take you to the goats' pen.

Continue a little further and you will find a BBQ area: deer love to rest with the little ones in the shade of the nearby trees. There even is, towards the end of the walk, a mini golf and a 5.000 m² play area. Perfect for a family day out. There even is a lovely bar with a terrace facing the ponds.
