The Centre for Engravings and Prints is a place for encounters, creation and research, dedicated solely to contemporary prints. Discover this lively museum, located 40 minutes from Brussels: its outstanding collection of 11,000 works by 1,340 Belgian and foreign artists is a tribute to this type of art from the second half of the 20th century to the present day.

The Centre of Engravings and Prints organises temporary exhibitions, either from its own collection or from other works of which it has been entrusted.

Its documentation centre features no less than 10,000 exhibition catalogues and reference books. Its educational service develops various tailored activities, such as guided tours, engraving workshops, educational packs, adults and children training, outdoor activities and extended educational activities.
