Come and see the Man of Spy's educational space to learn how scientists were able to recreate this amazingly realist version of Spyrou, as he is named.

The Man of Spy's educational space features a scenographic trail presenting the timeline: from finding the bones in 1886 to the many discoveries on this Neanderthal man.

Take a stroll in the nearby Bèche al Rotche woods, a wonderfully relaxing place. There you can easily access the Spy cave: simply take the path along the Orneau. You will find maps and information on the website.

Visitors with specific needs
