The Château de Seneffe estate and its Museum feature one of Belgium's most important silverware collections.

Its permanent exhibition, Faste et intimité (Splendour and intimacy) provides a wonderful insight into the 18th century. This multisensory experience lets visitors imagine they are entering a period painting through a secret door. There you can admire over 500 objects from the silverware collection, staged at their very best depending on what used they were designed for.

The Château de Seneffe and its park

The 22 hectares-estate, dating back to the 18th century features an orangery, a Neoclassical theatre, an aviary and gardens. Temporary exhibitions, events and classical music concerts will also delight visitors.
